CELEBRATE BEFORE YOUR WEDDING

It's not every day that all your close family and friends are able to get together and celebrate!
Why not invite them to a pre wedding dinner?

We are able to provide a special section in our pub/restaurant for up to 15 guests. We have an extensive menu plus our specials board all on our 2-4-1 offer.

We will cloth and set the table ready for your arrival and all your guests will receive a complimentary arrival drink.

To take advantage of this special offer please book at least two weeks before the event.

AFTER THE WEDDING

Book your wedding breakfast and evening reception with us and we will give you a voucher to come and celebrate your first wedding anniversary with us with a complimentary meal for two.

CIVIL CEREMONIES

There are so many wonderful ways in which to marry nowadays and a Civil Ceremony is one of these whereby your whole wedding day takes place altogether, making it so much more relaxing and memorable.

A room is provided for your Ceremony. We would arrange the seating plan for you and flowers for the Suite.

You would need to contact the Registry Office on 01302 564 922 Monday to Friday between the hours of 9:30am and 4:30pm. These will provide you with available dates of the Registrar whom will perform your Ceremony, their fees and due dates. All fees for the civil ceremony must be paid to the registrar. A fee of £150.00 will be charged by Hatfields for the civil ceremony room.

The Registrar will require a private meeting with the Groom 30 minutes before and the Bride 20 minutes before the Ceremony. Please do not worry about this meeting as our management team will be with you throughout your special day. You will require two witnesses; these can be family or friends provided they are over 16 years of age.

Before, during and after the Ceremony a selection of music of your choice can be used. Please deliver these to us before your special day. Religious content is not permitted at Civil Ceremonies.

YOUR WEDDING DAY FORMALITIES

There is lots for you to consider at this stage such as your seating arrangements, the order of speeches and of course who gets to toast the lucky Bride and Groom.

We, at Hatfields, are here to offer assistance with this and have provided you with a suggested proceedings for your very special day.....

TOP TABLE SEATING ARRANGEMENT

Best Man	Chief Brides Maid	Groom's Father	Bride's Mother	Groom	Bride	Bride's Father	Groom's Mother	Brides Maid
----------	-------------------	----------------	----------------	-------	-------	----------------	----------------	-------------

After your photographs, we would suggest a line up for you and your families to welcome your guests to your reception. In this line up are both of your parents, Best Man, Bridemaids and of course yourselves. Guests would be invited to rise as you both finally enter the Suite before we commence with the service of your meal.

As the meal comes to a close, we would invite you both to cut the cake and take this opportunity to photograph the occasion. We would then cut the cake and distribute with coffee.

Following this the Master of Ceremonies would invite the Bride's father to toast the happy couple. The Groom then stands to make his speech and toast the Bridesmaids, followed closely by the Best man (the speech everyone has been waiting for!) who would read a selection of cards or telegrams.

NOW IT'S TIME FOR YOU BOTH TO RELAX

WEDDINGS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

In Iran, crumbs from two decorated sugar cones are shaved over the couples heads for good luck!

oOo

In Morroco, the Bride is to have a Ceremonial purification milk bath before a ritual Henna painting!

oOo

Egyptians believed that the ring finger has the vein amoris, the vein of love, which runs straight to the heart!

oOo

In Tibet, girls begin wearing colourful aprons indicating availability for marriage!

oOo

In Italy, the Bride and Groom break a glass – the number of pieces of shattered glass symbolise the years the couple will share together!

oOo

In Veneto, the couple walk to the chapel together and the townsfolk place obstacles in the Bride's path to see how she will react to domestic situations, such as a broom to test her cleaning capability!

oOo

In Korea, ducks and geese are part of the Ceremony as they mate for life and represent faithfulness!

oOo

In Venezuela, the newlyweds sneak away from their reception without saying goodbye as it is thought to be good luck!

oOo

In Latvia, the Bride is kidnapped by the Groomsmen and the Groom must pay a ransom to get her back!

oOo

Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, put a sixpence in your shoe, originates from Victorian times!

oOo

In Czechoslovakia, before the marriage, an infant is laid on the couple's bed to bless and enhance fertility!

BOOKING YOUR RECEPTION

A provisional booking may be made for a given date and held for 2 weeks after which a non-refundable deposit of £300 is required to confirm your booking.

oOo

Eight weeks before your Wedding day, we shall invite you to meet with us to discuss final arrangements and numbers for both your day and evening reception.

oOo

The full balance is then payable 14 days prior to your Wedding date. Cancellation of the Wedding after the full balance has been paid will mean that 50% of the balance paid is retained by Hatfields and the full £300 non-refundable deposit is retained.
